The Decodables

The Decodables series contains books following a systematic, cumulative phonics scope and sequence aligned with the science of reading. The words within each text have been carefully selected to ensure that readers can rely on their decoding skills as they encounter new or unfamiliar words. Within the 6 different sub series, readers grow comfortable with a mix formats; wordless books and fiction and non-fiction with photo or original art illustration. Readers will also learn various components of books such as chapters, table of contents, and word lists.

Guide to Educators' Resources

www.norwoodhousepress.com

Norwood House Press is committed to providing educators with professional development tools needed to succeed in today's busy educational environment. Whether it's Teachers' Notes or digital products, we have got you covered! Below is a summary of available resources.

Digital Resources

Norwood House Press books are available in digital editions to use in school or distance learning at home. We sell ebooks individually or in large bundles. To see licensing options and pricing, visit our website.

Teachers' Notes

These free, ready-to-print resources are available for most of our books. They include objectives, activities, and lessons to do before, during, and after the reading. To download and print these notes, go to the Educators' Resources tab on our website. The series that have Teachers' Notes are also noted in this catalog.

F&P and Lexile Leveling

We work directly with Fountas & Pinnell and Lexile to have our books leveled. These are true levels created by these organizations and not by third parties. If a title lists its level as TBD then it is in process and will be updated on our website when available.

Accelerated Reader

To check if a Norwood House Press title is available as a quiz on Accelerated Reader, please go to their website or search your AR database. Please contact Accelerated Reader directly if you have questions about quiz availability for titles not currently in their program.

Correlations and Standards

Under Educators' Resources on our website you will find major curriculum standards and how our books align with the standard. Our correlations are prepared by industry professionals. To access these, visit our website and select the Educators' Resources tab at the top.

Google Preview

A sample of the interior of each book can be found on books.google.com. You can also go to our website. Once there, on the book detail page look for the "Look Inside" link. This link takes you to a preview of the book's pages to help get a feel if it's the right book for your needs.

The Decodables

The Decodables series incorporates the research and findings of the science of reading. The term “science of reading” refers to the research that reading experts, especially cognitive scientists, have conducted on how we learn to read. Each book follows an expertly crafted scope and sequence that incorporates fundamental spelling patterns such as CVC, VC, digraphs, consonant blends, and vowel patterns. Additionally, titles are broken down into 6 unique sets that are specific to grade levels and spelling patterns which enhances language comprehension and word recognition. A corresponding Teacher Guide/Lesson Plan will be available for each title to help reinforce decodable text concepts and patterns both in the classroom and at home.

Astro the Alien Learns Life Skills

Ben and Eva teach Astro important life skills like empathy, perseverance, compassion, and more! With Ben and Eva’s help, Astro practices these skills to interact better with others and learn to tackle the challenges that come his way. In each set of books, the group explores various topics so that Astro can learn more about the world the alien now lives in! Written at a slightly higher level than the introductory Dear Dragon series, Astro the Alien books help early readers build on previous skills, expanding vocabulary and learning more complex concepts. Each book includes a note to caregivers, a word list, and activities to promote reading success.

New Series • 6 New Titles • See page 31

STEM Superstars

Science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) have changed the world. STEM Superstars explores the diverse lives and careers of people who have made amazing breakthroughs. Learn more about these people and their all-star work. Each book contains fun facts, a glossary, an index, and places to go to learn more.

Continuing Series • 4 New Titles • See page 12

A Great Game!

Young game enthusiasts get the information they want with the A Great Game! series. These fun-filled books trace the history of popular games, provide details about the creators, explore competitions, and take a look at future plans and challenges. Basic strategy, guidelines and needed equipment are explained. Each book includes a glossary, index, and bibliography for further reading.

Search for Sounds (Set 1)

The Search for Sounds series is designed to help students develop phonemic awareness within the context of story and picture. Students are presented with wordless books and have fun finding items in the pictures that highlight target sounds. Each sound's related letter is also on the page in a clear lowercase font. Cumulative read-aloud texts linked to the pictures are read by the teacher and present social studies and science concepts of interest to young children. Some of the books include recurring characters exploring the topics while others are more typical nonfiction. Interest will be generated as your students work to isolate, identify, and link the sounds to words. The books include lists of suggested words/sounds to search for as well as a note to the caregiver. Grade: PK-K • Pages: 16

Friends and Family Fun (Set 2)

Students will be excited to explore this series of decodable books for early readers. Recurring characters and familiar contexts such as home or a park are mixed with humor, action, and fun. Readers will cheer as Ben gets a new pet or Zack sees a whale. Each cumulative book is for readers just beginning to decode words. The books begin by introducing the short vowels one at a time within a consonant-vowel-consonant pattern. Later books encourage the readers to incorporate consonant digraphs into their blending. Limited high-frequency words and supportive pictures help the reader successfully navigate the text while they practice essential decoding skills. Each title includes a note to the caregiver and a word list that is organized by Focus words, High-Frequency words and Challenging words. Grade: K-1 • Pages: 16

The marae is the center of the Maori community. People gather there for hui (meetings), celebrations, and tangihanga (funerals). Each marae has a courtyard, wharenui (meeting house), and wharekai (dining hall). There may be other buildings too. What happens if you are invited onto a marae? Don't worry! Welcoming people is a part of manaakitanga. This means showing hospitality and care toward others. In the powhiri (welcome ceremony), your hosts will show you what to do.

First, the visitors wait to be greeted and called onto the marae. Then, the hosts and visitors take turns to give speeches and sing. Visitors line up to shake hands or hongi (press noses) with the hosts. Afterwards, there will be kai (food). This is part of whanaunatanga, or building up relationships and connections. You want to respect the Maori culture. How can you do that?

- Respect the language. Find out how to say the names of people and places correctly.
- Learn some common Maori words and phrases.
- Read some pātakau (legends).
- Learn about tikanga, or protocol. For example, the head is tapu (sacred). Be careful about touching other people's heads. Don't sit on tables. A table is a place for food.

Norwood Discovery Graphics take young readers on exciting adventures in an accessible, easy-to-read graphic novel format. Sure to grab readers' attention, the series focuses on adventurous journeys packed with loads of information to expand knowledge. The series features full-color graphic novel style illustrations, fun storylines, and informative text focusing on curriculum topics. Each book features fun facts, additional information, and a glossary.

STEM Fairy Tales

Dr. Gnome-It-All is host of the most popular internet show found on the World Wondrous Web—STEM Stream. In graphic-style format, he teaches his audience about science, technology, engineering, and mathematics, while entertaining them with adaptations of timeless fairy tales. STEM Fairy Tales explains science concepts as they appear in the story and gives readers a new perspective on favorite fables.

Beginning-to-Read™ Overview

The Beginning-to-Read™ family of books are the gold standard for beginning readers. No other series of books matches a beginning reader's interest with their abilities so closely. From Fairy Tales and Folklore to Science and Spanish, BTRs are the place to start reading! BTRs contain low reading levels with sight words and repetition to gain confidence. Each book contains resources to assist caregivers and educators in the process of building a child's literacy and comprehension. Below is a brief description of each series in the BTR family of books.

Dear Dragon Developing Readers

Introduce your PK-K readers to the Dear Dragon character with the Dear Dragon Developing Readers series. The books provide emergent readers opportunities to read for meaning and gain fluency through simple story lines, strong picture support and repetition. Written at F&P levels A-D, these are the perfect start before moving on to the next series of Dear Dragon books. Each book includes a picture glossary, reading activities and Note to Caregiver.

Astro the Alien

Meet Astro the Alien! Astro landed on earth and now lives in Ben and Eva's backyard in a space pod! Being new on Earth, Ben and Eva help Astro learn about his new world and its inhabitants. Written at F&P levels H-I, they are slightly higher levels than the Dear Dragon series. Astro the Alien is the next step to help early readers build on previous skills; expanding vocabulary and learning more complex concepts. Educators' resources include reading reinforcement activities, word list and Note to Caregivers.

Dear Dragon

Margaret Hillert's classic stories about a boy and his pet dragon. Follow the fun as the boy and the dragon play and learn together. Using high-frequency words and repetition, readers gain confidence while enjoying fun stories. F&P levels range from E-G. Activities in the back of the book support Phonemic Awareness, Phonics, Vocabulary Fluency and Text Comprehension. A word list and a Note to Caregiver is included.

Fairy Tales and Folklore

These titles are retellings of classic Fairy Tales and Folklore stories in an easy format by Margaret Hillert. Illustrations provide lots of support in telling the story at a very low reading level. Newly re-illustrated for a fresh look at favorite tales. Activities in the back of the book support Phonemic Awareness, Phonics, Vocabulary Fluency and Text Comprehension. A word list and a Note to Caregiver is included.

A Beginning-to-Read Book

Easy Stories

Margaret Hillert's collection of 28 Easy Fiction Stories are written at a very low reading level and are about all kinds of kids and the things they like. From animals to space travel, these stories are fun while building reading confidence. Newly re-illustrated for a fresh, modern look. Activities in the back support Phonemic Awareness, Phonics, Vocabulary, Fluency and Text Comprehension. A word list and a Note to Caregiver is included.

Read and Discover Science

This low reading level science series aligns with Next Generation Science Standards for grades K–2. Topics include Earth, Life, and Physical Science. Connecting Concepts activities in the back give educators and caregivers additional resources. The activities include graphic organizers, academic and scientific language lists, science in the real world examples, exercises to build fluency and places to get more information. Word lists and Note to Caregivers included.

Spanish and Bilingual

Many of Margaret Hillert's classic stories are available in Spanish-only or Bilingual editions. These fun stories are perfect beginning books for Spanish or English Language Learners. Bilingual books come with English and Spanish on the same page. Educators' resources include reading reinforcement activities in the Bilingual edition, and Note to Caregivers in both editions.

Read and Discover Social Studies

This low reading level series covers nonfiction social studies and SEL topics about everyday life and experiences. Content areas include emotions, sports, seasons, nature, community places, holidays, civics, economics and SEL for grades K–2. Reading Reinforcements in the back of the book cover Craft and Structure, Vocabulary, Foundational Skills, Close Reading and Fluency with high-frequency and content word lists. Note to Caregivers included.

Pair-It! Twin Texts

Pairing the Read and Discover books with Dear Dragon titles focusing on the same concept allows you to incorporate "Twin Texts" to support the balance of reading nonfiction and fiction that is an integral goal of many state and national standards. See page 35 for the complete list of titles.

Dear Dragon Developing Readers

Introduce your PK-K readers to the beloved Dear Dragon character with the Dear Dragon Developing Readers series. The books provide emergent readers opportunities to read for meaning and gain fluency through familiar topics, simple story lines, strong picture support and repetitive high-frequency words. Follow a boy and his pet dragon as they visit new places, meet new friends and explore their feelings. Written for the earliest F&P levels of A-D, these are the perfect start to reading before moving on to the next series of Dear Dragon books.

Astro the Alien

A Beginning-to-Read Book

NEW SERIES!

Astro the Alien landed on Earth and now lives in Ben and Eva's backyard in a space pod! Together they learn about the world around them and sometimes travel to far away places. Written at higher F&P levels than the Dear Dragon series, Astro the Alien is the next step to help early readers build on previous skills; expanding vocabulary and learning more complex concepts. Reading activities in the back of the books reinforce comprehension, vocabulary, close reading, foundational skills and fluency.

Pair-It! Twin Texts

Pairing the Read and Discover Social Studies books with Dear Dragon titles focusing on the same concept allows you to incorporate “Twin Texts” to support the balance of reading nonfiction and fiction that is an integral goal of many national and state standards. Research cites that twin texts help encourage the enjoyment of reading while capitalizing on students’ fascination with facts. Educators can begin by reading the nonfiction book to build background, which helps support comprehension of the related fiction. Alternately, starting with the fiction, you can spark your child’s interest and expand his or her knowledge of the topic with the nonfiction text. Educators’ Resources are available on our website: www.norwoodhousepress.com

Information:

- Interest level: Grade PK–2. Pair-It! titles by topic have comparable text load and reading levels

A Beginning-to-Read Book

Read and Discover Social Studies

Read and Discover nonfiction readers feature engaging, informative text and beautiful full-color photographs, which work together to foster independent reading. Each title teaches content area concepts and vocabulary while reinforcing high-frequency words. Reading reinforcement activities strengthen early literacy skills, such as understanding the craft and structure of informational text, key vocabulary words, foundation skills, close reading, and fluency. This series can be used with beginning readers to:

- Practice reading high-frequency words.
- Expand comprehension of informational text.
- Improve oral language skills.

Social and Emotional Learning

These titles focus on social and emotional learning topics for young readers that include being kind to animals, our planet, each other, and themselves. These nonfiction Beginning-to-Read™ books connect social issues such as empathy and kindness to the social studies curriculum.

Read and Discover Features:

- Meets C3 Framework Standards for Social Studies
- Reinforces high frequency words
- Expands comprehension of informational text
- Reading Reinforcement Activities included

Praise for Being Kind to Animals

"Animals are a major part of our lives, be they household companions, in a country corral, or scampering through a nearby wood. This entry in the Read and Discover Social Studies series (4 titles) provides a gentle guide to considerate behavior around all kinds of animals, domesticated and wild. The first section focuses on pets, giving tips on interaction and care. The next extends to behavior around animals in their natural habitats, suggesting that the best way to care for living things is to look after the planet. Back matter includes suggestions to improve reading comprehension and vocabulary, and a complete word list offers fledgling readers help with fluency."

KIT AND CREST

Arsenal players have worn red and white shirts with white shorts for most of the club's history. The team's away kit changes often, but usually is a mix of yellow and blue. The club crest is a shield with a gold cannon. Although the crest has changed over the years, it has always included a cannon.

Praise for How Money Works

“Talking about money can be difficult, even for adults, but it is essential if one is to become financially independent and economically savvy. Using simple language in short, labeled paragraphs, this series contextualizes the way money works in communities, households, and the world at large, demonstrating that monetary issues don’t exist in a vacuum. The authors delineate what countries, states, and cities spend money on, such as social programs, education, housing, and healthcare, and who is responsible for making broad financial decisions. The series also explains factors that affect families, such as budgets, credit, loans, insurance, taxes, rent, and much more, in an accessible way. Colorful, simply drawn graphics enhance the text, and helpful graphs and charts are employed to add perspective and illustrate more abstract concepts. VERDICT: A comprehensive start to getting students to think about money and become responsible spenders and savers.”

POEMS FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

America is not easy. It's a land of high ideals and stirring icons, but it is also a land of harsh realities. We celebrate the incredible achievements of individuals as we turn our gaze from hunger and homelessness in the streets. We have a difficult time matching our words with our deeds. This is where poetry comes in. A poem has the ability to personalize the ideal, to make it tangible in a way that a speech or news report cannot. It can widen the angle through which we view society. It can move us to action. The poems in this anthology do just that: confront, challenge, and inspire. They take us on a journey toward social justice, starting in the shadows and slowly working our way home. Edited by Gail Bush and Randy Meyer. Foreword by COMMON.

GREAT DEBATES

TOUGH QUESTIONS / SMART HISTORY

Great Debates is an information-packed series that stimulates critical thinking with tough questions. Each book in the series aligns with Language Arts Anchor Standards for Reading Informational Text and Speaking and Listening. Great Debates takes its name from the spirited discourse that surrounds each historical theme in the series. The narrative pauses at defining moments and “drops in” on influential Americans battling over two sides of a key issue. Readers learn how arguments are framed, and make eye-opening connections between great debates from the past and the ones that are taking place today. Text strengthens critical thinking skills with open-ended questions concerning social issues and history. Readers are invited to “find their own voice” and get involved if they find they have an interest in the issue.

Book Features:

- Meets State Standards for Language Arts

The highly acclaimed Matters of Opinion series takes a look into important issues that young adults face. Each book features thought-provoking questions surrounding the issue and provides essays on both the pro and con point of view. As students learn more about the different sides of each issue, they can then start to formulate their own opinions on the topic. After each discussion, the reader is introduced to argumentative techniques that the authors used to present their viewpoints. The last chapter encourages the reader to write their own opinion piece and provides guidance for working through the steps of essay writing.

Book Features:

- Aligns with Language Arts Anchor Standards for Reading Informational Text and Speaking and Listening
- Teaches critical thinking skills
- Common argumentative technique examples explained
- Instructions on essay writing
- Table of Contents, Timeline, Bibliography, Glossary, Index, Additional Resources
